

Indipendent house for Sale to Massarosa Area: Corsanico

500 square meters | Bathrooms: 6 | Bedrooms: 10 | Rooms: 22

Rural stone complex with sea view and land

We are located in one of the most panoramic locations on the Versilia sea where the hilly land owned gently slopes down giving the pleasantness of flat expanses

A brightness that is reflected by the excellent exposure and by Lake Massaciuccoli makes this complex of two ancient stone buildings a unique residence in its style.

The villa is spread over three levels with large spaces such that it can be divided into several residential units with independent entrances between them, remain a single house or become a tourist-accommodation business; the second building, which overlooks the private courtyard and stands on two levels, is single-family and adds privacy to the outdoor space.

The property is currently in its raw state with the possibility of being totally customized, with 1.5 hectares of land around which also includes the possibility of a swimming pool or simply, to enjoy large green spaces.
